

Proverbs

The Book of Proverbs is a guide to wise living. It is full of short sayings that we can apply directly to our lives. Adults and kids can learn from and talk about Proverbs together.

Everything written in the Book of Proverbs is from Solomon, the son of David, and king of Israel. Chapter 1 tells us:

They will teach you how to be wise and self-controlled.

They will teach you what is honest and fair and right.

It also tells us:

Knowledge begins with respect for the Lord.

But foolish people hate wisdom and discipline.

Each family is asked to read and discuss a chapter of Proverbs to together over the next week. Talk with your families about what God wants for us, as individuals and as families, and why He gave us the Book of Proverbs.

Chapter 12 - Hudson

Chapter 17 – La Ferney

Chapter 22 - Waters

When we meet on Wednesday, April 26, we will have a short discussion about what we have studied with our own families and each person (kids too!) will be encouraged to choose a proverb that they found interesting or would like to discuss.

Question: What do you believe God wants for you?

God wants what is best for us. He wants us to grow and become people who are strong, loving, and fair. He wants us to think before we act and make wise decisions.
